2.6 Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.2 Attainment of CO and PO is evaluated

Institute adopts following process for the evaluation of CO-PO Attainment:

- Graduate attributes listed by the NBA (National Board of Accreditation) forms the basis for the PO statement, published by NBA.

- Concerned Board studies SPPU, states the CO statements for each course.

- Every faculty carry outs the mapping of CO-PO with appropriate justification on the level of 1, 2 and 3 (1-Low, 2-Medium, 3-High).

- Using customized ERP software, CO attainment is evaluated and PO attainments are determined through direct methods (80% weightage) and indirect methods (20% weightage).

- Direct attainment is evaluated through CIE (Continuous Internal Evaluation) and SEE (Semester End Evaluation). Indirect attainment is evaluated through feedback / survey.

- Assignments, Practical Evaluation, Unit Tests 1 & 2, or any other technique selected by the teacher are used to determine CIE attainment.

- SEE attainment is based on results of university examinations that includes results of theory, in-semester, term work and oral / practical examination.

- For calculation of CO attainment, the weighted average of 60% CIE and 40% SEE is taken into account.

- Based on the mapping, the PO attainment for each course and for the program is determined.
