Appreciation Letter

Dear Dr. Rahul Agarwal,

On behalf of Ballari Institute of Technology and Management, I wanted to express our sincerest gratitude for your participation as a Guest Speaker at our recent event FDP on "Recent Advancements in Electric Vehicle Technology". Your contribution was invaluable, and we received numerous positive comments from attendees about your presentation.

Your expertise on the topic of Introduction to "Optimization and JAYA Algorithm" was evident, and your insights provided a new perspective that generated thought-provoking discussion among our audience. We were all thoroughly engaged and learned a great deal from your presentation.

Again, we are deeply grateful for your session on 24/07/23. Your contribution to the success of the event was immeasurable, and we hope to have the opportunity to work with you again in the future.
